Nick,

I received your packet of information and am quite impressed with the work you have done. It is certainly a worthwhile cause. It has taken me some time to respond due to the fact that I am preparing for a 15 passenger van trial that starts Monday in Laredo, Texas. It will be only the second van trial. The first was more than 6 years ago. I have instructed my assistant to send some information that may assist you. Best of luck. You are certainly doing a good thing.

Jeff
